There's a fine line between a numerator and a denominator. (Only a fraction of you will find this humorous)!

You shoulda seen the other guy!

Invite potential members to our next speaker meeting! To continue to be a successful club we must recruit enthusiastic civic minded people to join with us to enhance the work we do.

Bits and Pieces

Chris and Jennifer display backpacks, school supplies and cool new back-to-school clothing for our adopted family

Shirley L assumed control of the collection plate this morning and promptly found Ron, and all of us, saddened by the passing of friend and Past National President Gerald Franklin. He and Shirley will be traveling to Texas to attend the funeral. Bob happily gave us an update on son Rob's great progress after heart surgery. Dave was happy to see our friend and original Club member Bill Culbertson back with us today, and for all the back-to-school supplies and clothing for our supported family. Jennifer was happy again to have spent her summer with us; next week she'll be back in the weird and wonderful world of 5th Graders.

Bill was happy to be back with us today and will be giving us some Club history next week. He also enjoyed getting the ZEST sent to him. Shirley K was disappointed that the collection box for aluminum pull-tabs that she placed at Meridien mysteriously disappeared. Eldon was happy because he came in late he got to sit between Tom and Shirley K. Tom tossed in buck for all the great gear purchased for the kids by our SUPER shoppers, Chris & Jennifer. Ron piped up again to say he passed his Stress Test, and feels great! Shirley L and Johnny donated for our shopping success and for having Bill here again.

Discussion ensued about our upcoming programs. Ron will have Reverse O Rama tickets next week, really! We are confirmed for our One Nation Under God program at Meridian Senior Living at 8:30 am, November 19th. Chris and Romy are identifying speakers - more to come on this soon.
